BORIS IV & STELLAR CONQUEST BEGIN!! DUNE OVER!!

Well, Franz is presumably still beneath the waves, but the game must go on! Players will find their country assignment on page 4. Happily, nearly everyone got his first choice. The players are:
Austria: Jeff Vandina England: Jack McHugh France: TJ Klausuns
Germany: Eric Ford Italy: Scott Cameron Russia: Rick Egvedt
Turkey: Martin Cohn
See the inside back cover for addresses. SPECIAL: Orders for Spring '91 are due 6 Mar 93.

Those of you who have expressed interest will find enclosed a copy of the "GM Interpretation" of the STELLAR CONQUEST pbm system. Several of you have offered additional suggestions, tournament rules, etc., for the system. To keep it simple for the first run through, I've decided to offer only two optional rules for approval. We can still accommodate more players (in a second game if need be), so sign up soonest.

It's getting close to subscription renewal time and Boris is thinking of upping the postal sub rate to $9/12 issues ($.75 an issue, up from the present $.50). This issue costs $.69 a copy for duplication and postage alone, so you can see why the temptation is so strong. Right now we're leaning towards letting on-time renewals continue at the old rate (once) and socking the late folks with the higher rate.

ALTERNATE ALERT: Would Eric Ford provide provisional orders for Russia in BORIS IV? Thanks. I'm looking for yet another KREMLIN alternate to assume the PCS position if need be. If interested apply herein.

BORIS'S BBS

THOUGHT FOR THE SEASON: Diplomacy! Oh, I adore Diplomacy. Everyone dresses so well.
--Luozanna Troi of Beta-zed

Mark Luedi is looking for a few more 1835 players for his Wild Gypsy Rose. If interested contact him at 503 W Jefferson #2, Ann Arbor, MI 48103-4917. Neither sub nor game fee required.

Tom Johnston is opening a DIP game in his Blunderdom, a subzone to WGR. Only a $2 anti-NMR deposit required. Contact him with your country preference list at 7509 W 159th St 303-C, Tinley Park, IL 60477. Tell him Boris sent you.

Bill Wordelmann (541 Canyon Trail, Carol Stream, IL 60188-1364) is publishing Standard Gauge, a zine dedicated (so far) to the postal play of BRITISH RAILS and soon NIPPON RAILS. Bill is associated with Mayfair Games so has a lot of the "straight skinny" as to what they're doing for the world of postal railroad gaming.

Mike Paffenberger (Box 22, Postoria, OH 44830) is starting a game of City by the Sea, where the player starts with but a king and a caravan and tries to dominate a 25x25 continent both economically and militarily. To do so will take much growth, aggression, planning, and some luck. Fee is $.1 per 3 move (game-month) turn.

BOOS & KUDOS

This month's Madame Bolduc Press Excellence Award goes jointly to TJ Klausuns for his first article datelined Rome in BORIS IV and to Chuck Hanna for his article datelined Paris in BORIS V.

This month's Ms Mar Super-Suds Bombs goes to Paul Saunders for yet another triple NMR. "Something's wrong when he can find time to fit but not to submit orders for BORIS," snarled She-of-Great-Might-and-Power.

DEADLINE FOR ALL GAMES IS NOON (CST) 6 FEB 93

BIDS AGAIN IN RUSSIA!! TURKS ROUGHED UP!

Spring 1905

CLIFFHOME - With the virtual collapse of Russia, only France in the West and perhaps Austria in the East can offer more than token resistance to English expansionism. The French weakness is their lack of fleets to support the buttressing F ENG. The English weakness is the lack of armies to penetrate past the littoral provinces. Austria, protected from RN raids by the French and Italian navies, is well positioned to gobble up the Russian centers with impunity while Italy is in position to cut the Turk's jugular with A TUN-SMY. Some counter balance to England must be found, lest all is lost.

TROOP MOVEMENTS

Russia NMR, GM retreated A BUL-otb; Turkish F ION retreated ALB.

EMBASSY BEAT

BERLIN: Civilized countries of the world...Heed Germany's call!!!! The French intrusion into German territory cannot be ignored! The Militant French Barbarians have overrun the peace-loving peoples of Munich and have refused all attempts to liberate their repressed captives. This atrocity must be dealt with! Italy...Take Arms! Austria...Rally to Germany's call!

ROME--Lord Devon announced today that Italy will support France in this her time of need. The announcement came after an emergency meeting of the war council that was called into session immediately after England's illegal annexation of Brest. Also attending the meetings were delegates from France, Austria, Germany and Russia. During the war council session the Austrian representative was quoted as saying "Don't move into Marseilles."

ROME--Sources in the Vatican say that the Pope wants Lord Devon to declare war on England. They believe the Pope will use the current invasion of France by England to pressure Italy and the other nations of the world to unite against England. It is believed that the Pope's real agenda is only to gain control of the renegade Church of England. This is not the first time the Pope has been accused of influencing Lord Devon into wars for the Church. Many believe the war with Turkey was initiated by the Pope as a religious crusade. Neither the Pope or Lord Devon could be reached for comment.

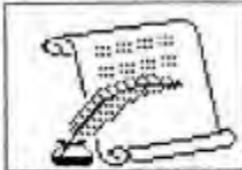

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

London Times--Lord One-Eyed has announced that the Royal family and their Germanic cousins have reached an agreement on the protection of the Low countries from the Frog invaders. Additionally, the Kaiser and His majesty have agreed that hostilities cannot cease until the French upstarts have withdrawn their forces from Munich in time for Oktoberfest.

AUSTRIA GRABS VEN! BIG TWO ROLL ON!

Spring 1905

MURKWOOD--The Turks appear doomed as Tsar Jack achieves the millenia old Russian drive to the Med and control over the Bosphorus and Dardanelles. Austria, perhaps anticipating a Russian invasion of VIE or BUD in the Fall, has snatched VEN as "compensation", thus cementing an Italo-Russian alliance. The French Navy looks to be willing to bring the fight to English shores, but can the army be fit the time it needs?

TROOP EQUIVALENTS

Due next time are the Spring retreats and orders for Fall 1905, which may be conditional on the retreat.

EMBASSY BEAT

LONDON--The King has announced a holiday in celebration of the Defeat of Germany. A display of the captured flags of the German Army will be opened at the Imperial War Museum in London.

The King also issued a caution to the general population that the long awaited peace in Europe is not at hand. "We still have the French to deal with and they seem to have talked Italy into a shaky alliance to help them control the Med and block us from our colonies in Africa," he said in a statement to the press at the gala celebration held in Buckingham Palace.

"We have sent an emissary to the Pope and the Italian government to reopen negotiations to allow us free passage to Cairo. We hope it will be a successful mission and Italy will withdraw its support of the fleets," the King was further quoted.

In a more negative note, the top Admiral of the fleet, Lord Kitchener, stated that the redeployment of the French fleets to the Atlantic could cause grave consequences and urged the construction of more fleets to combat the new threat. It is understood that the government is meeting after the holidays to consider the proposal on the fielding of additional troops to land on the coast of France to seize their industrial bases and hasten their defeat before the arrival of their fleets.

The evening ended with the singing of several rounds of "God Save the King", toasts all around and a strong determination to end the French threat to England.

MOSCOW--Father Winter was kind enough to provide a white Christmas for the Czars family at their northern retreat. They wish everyone a happy new year and urge the French and Italians to sue for peace with their English and Austrian neighbors. As for the infidel Turks...

PARIS--After a quiet insurrection, France now has a new leader. A former anarchist from America has proclaimed himself the Emperor Charles Napoleon and has taken control of what remains of the French government. A representative of Reuters inquired whether the transition from anarchist to monarchist was a difficult one, but was executed before receiving an answer. The absence of further questions from the press has made it difficult to assemble any reliable information, but there seems to be general agreement on the following unofficial reports: The "emperor" claims his grandfather was conceived on St. Helena island shortly before his namesake's death in exile. And "Charles Napoleon" has apparently

STOCK BUYING Y:

Morrison sells 1 B&O, buys President's share of CP, setting par at $100 ($352+180-200 = $332); B&O drops to $160.

Klausutis buys 1 B&O ($460-160 = $300), B&O sold out!

Frueh buys 1 PA ($578-90 = $488), PA sold out!

Hanna buys 1 B&M ($203-100 = $103)

Morrison buys 1 CP ($332-100 = $232)

Klausutis buys 1 ERIE ($113-100 = $13)

Frueh buys 1 ERIE ($288-100 = $188), Erie sold out!

Hanna passes. Morrison sells 1 C&O, buys 1 CP ($32+100-100 = $32); CP floats; C&O drops to $90.

Frueh buys and sells 1 CP. CP drops to $90.

All pass.

The B&O and PA are sold out so rise to A180 and A112 respectively. Due next time are orders for ORs 1 through 7.3. Since it's most likely a 6-train will be bought in OR 7.1, the players are asked to anticipate this eventuality. We will probably stop play if a diesel is bought unless everyone has planned or this possibility too and there are no forced engine buys.

 Jack Shacklett: "Fang Gullwulf" the Berserker
 Michael Tsuk: "Capt Avalon" the optional Captain

MAGIC REALM

WOOLLY STRIKES OUT!

MOONDOGGIE MEETS LANCERS!

COMBAT: I've ruled that Capt A gets to keep the horses for these reasons: 1) while the spirit of the rules would seem to differ, there is no rule against the transfer, 2) Capt A could've easily made the transfer earlier, 3) he needs the extra movement phase the horse gave him to get where he is when he got there, and 4) we're playing for fun, not for blood. You may still appeal if you can cite a compelling rule or rules.

BATTLE

Woolly lures Spider as Scritch watches. Woolly swings axe M5 and dodges M4*. The spider smashes L4 and ducks 3. No result. Woolly again swings M5 and dodges M4*; the spider thrusts L4 and charges 3. Missed again and combat ceases in the clearing.

 Moondoggie @ LW5=LCF & Bashkars: R(MAGIC IV6*), R(MAGIC IV4*), SPX, SP(enchant MAGIC IV6*), SP(enchant MAGIC IV4*), Lancers arrive!

Monsters Hell = 4

COMBAT: Sir Jordan may break concealment and attack the Giant, or have Robin attempt to ambush it in C15. Woolly vs Scritch vs H. Spider and T. Giant in Cr3.

STUFF OF NOTE: A T. Demon at Cr1, a sixpack of axe-goblins at BL2, a sixpack of spear-goblins at BL5, a pile of abandoned stuff at BY5. The Vault is open and still has two treasures therein. Borderland is enchanted.

PRESS:

Some righteous Bashkars for the Moondoggie to share a campfire and some holiday ale in these fine Linden Woods.

Fang and Ralph (help!! Lost in woods and the cookie crumbs are all gone!)

THE HUNT

WAYNE SURGES!

Inspired by Lipton's book, "An Exaltation of Larks", this is a word game where we propose a noun and the players are asked to propose a collective noun to fit, such as "flock" for "sheep", or "pride" for lions. Boris and Ms. Nar will rank each entry for each word and the best score will be the winner, regardless of Mr. Lipton's proclamations. Each word gives a possible 1 point, but the point may be split if either more than one player suggests it or two or more words are ranked equally. The first player to score 10 points wins six free issues of this rag. The Hunt is run in "Chases" or rounds. This is the second Chase. To the Hunt!

CHASE 2:

1. gifts	bribe, embarrassment, greek, plethora(*), sleightful(B), tree, windfall
2. bracelets	bangle, brace, dangle(B), tangle(*), tree, nisa, wrist
3. pillows	bed(2*), bedful, billow, stack(B), trampoline, tee
4. forests	sper, continent(B), fathoms, lot(*), tree(2), wild wood
5. coffee	aroma(*), bladdery, coffers, mainline, tree, urn, vileness(B)
6. starships	constellations(*), galaxy, orbit, shuttle, shower, squadron(B), tree
7. soldiers	grunt, rank(2), squad(B), tree, woop(2*)
8. reindeer	flight(+), god's lap, herd(+B), slay, thunder, tree
9. bouquets	beaucoup, bounty, bucket, extravagancy(B), flower, garland(*), tree
10. paper	avalanche(B), bureaucracy, forest, piles, pulp, ream(*), tree

LEGEND: B = Boris's suggestion, L = Lipton's suggestion, N = Ms. Nar's suggestion, * = winner, # = duplicate suggestions, + = tie for first, i = B/L/N suggested it too

Score this time: Wayne Morrison 4.5, Scott Cameron 2.5, Dan Farrow 2, Ron Fisher 1, Mark Luedt 0, Jason Fisher 0

Total score: Scott Cameron & Wayne Morrison 4.5, Jason Fisher, Dick Martin & Dan Farrow 3, Ron Fisher 1, Mark Luedt 0.

CHASE 3:

1. Cardassians	2. Vulcans	3. Römlangs	4. cowboys	5. engineers
6. ghosts	7. socks	8. bears	9. bricks	10. sharks

PRESS:

I had a bit of trouble with variety in this hunt... I'll try harder next time... promise. :)

Lipton's "Exaltation of Larks" is available now from the Barnes and Noble catalog (1-800-242-6657 the last I called, although the catalog cites 1-201-767-7079) for $9.95 + $2.50 shipping. It is Catalog #1856947. Hardback, B&W illustrations, 324 pp.

--BORIS V--(continued from p3)

spent the majority of his adult life in a lunatic asylum near Baltimore. In his only official statement, the emperor urged the women of France to knit wool socks for his armies' coming march on Moscow.

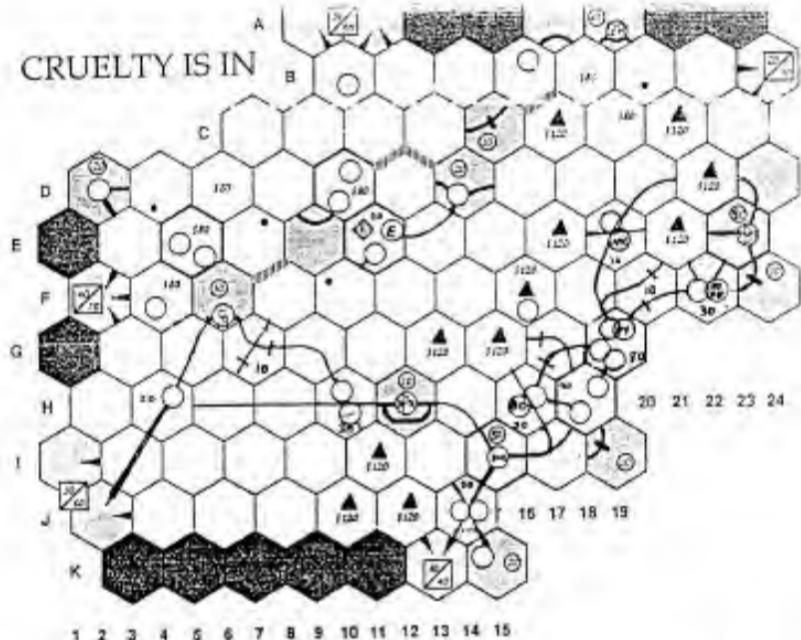

VIENNA--Newly appointed Foreign Minister, R. Fisher, returned to Vienna after the holidays and deplored the disappearance of the VIE unit of the Home Guard. "They just formed last winter, took spring training, played a minor support role in the expeditionary force leaving SER for the coast, and decided to disband for the holidays. This will be the last army formation where the leaders are political appointees."

Fisher also discounted any problems resulting in reports of Russian occupation of SER. "The Serbs get along pretty well with the Russians, as long as it's not the Turks returning I don't see any problems."

CRUELTY IS IN

GREED IS GOOD

"Hey Rocky, watch me pull a rabbit out of a hat!"

Again? Sure, why not? Remember, this will be your last chance to see Zine Register the way it was meant to be... Totally Turbo®!

Change is good. Along with a new three-column format, we've added scanned pictures of almost every zine in the hobby, so you can "see before you buy." This makes issue #21 more of a "catalog of zines" than a dry and dusty "dictionary of zines." You can browse through it, drool over your favorite zines!, or use the descriptions of those you don't care for as toilet paper (hey, that's what they used to do with the Sears & Roebuck catalog, too!) Freetorn of choice, as always...

Some things haven't changed, however, as we have numerous "guest reviews" contributed by "the Usual Gang of Idiots," the very latest info on gamestats, eulogies to recently departed zines (i.e., foldists), "sidebars" on many different aspects of the postal gamers hobby, and more listings of foreign zines than any Zine Register.

If you want to receive your very own copy of Zine Register #21, be sure to get in line by sending a mere $2.50 ($4.00 for overseas buyers!) to:

Garret Schenck, 40 3rd Place, Basement Apt., Brooklyn, NY 11231-3302.

North American Zine Bank

Interested in receiving a whole bunch of sample zines, but too lazy to send out 20 or 30 letters or postcards? Why not send $3.00 ($5.00 overseas) to Pete Gaughan. He'll send you a NAZB packet containing copies of at least 20 sample zines. That's no more than 15¢ per sample—less than a postcard! You can request specific zines, certain kinds of zines (i.e., RA zines or Dip only), or exclude zines you aren't interested in. He'll do his best to give you just what you want, subject to availability.

Pete will be publishing his first Zine Register in May 1993. But he's as anxious to start doing the Zine Bank as I am to get rid of it, so he's taking over ZR's companion service starting now. His address: 1521 S. Novato Blvd. #46, Novato, CA 94947-4147.
